

LOCAL TALKS A HUGE SUCCESS

The Leader recently gave lectures entitled 'Mosley and the BUF' in a short tour of village halls. These are advertised locally as 'historic interest' to avoid any trouble from the usual suspects. Most villages have a history society or such like and are often looking for speakers. This has proven a great way to promote the NBU. Once the audience has listened to the truth about British Fascism it is easier to approach the subject of Fascism today. Holding a questions and answer session after the main talk gives you chance to move the conversation onto the NBU.

It is amazing how people open up when they are in the company of other like-minded people. Our movement is, after all, about people not politicians, the NBU is not a party who wish to strut the political stage sporting a colourful rosette playing the establishments game and building on sand.

No, we are laying real concrete foundations, we will carry on our task of reaching our people as Gary has said, "Without fuss, without confrontation the quiet revolution is underway".

Officer message board

Hello comrades I am Alexander Agnew and I am the Regional Officer for Central Scotland and the West

I live in Glasgow and I am 52 years old and i have been a member of our glorious organisation for a number of years and a supporter for longer .

I first started being involved in far right politics as a 18 year old and done the usual rounds of groups in and around the 1980/90s like NF through to BNP but really started focussing on fascism and Oswald Mosley in about 2005 and it showed me a different way of what I wasn't getting out of the main groups who were disorganised and unruly .

The New British Union is the more professional and intelligent way of political parties and we an really make a difference where the others have failed .

I look forward to meeting you all sometime and I want to make a small gathering of our Scottish members possible whenever we can organise it if anyone is interested in putting ideas through for this then please email me.

Thank you
Hail Victory

Anders

OTHER GROUPS FROM THE PAST: THE STRANGE CASE OF THE IMPERIAL FASCIST LEAGUE

Seth Tyrssen

I say “strange case, because the Imperial Fascist League is just about as strange as it gets. Here’s another group from the past, that started out Fascist but wound up turning National Socialist, while keeping the Fascist name. It was headed by Dr. Arnold Leese, a veterinarian, shown at right. That’s their symbol, up there in the headline. But it’s almost impossible to talk about the IFL without first going into their origins. They were a splinter group that broke away from the “British Fascisti” who later changed their name to more English “British Fascists.” That particular group was founded in 1923 by Rotha Lintorn-Orman, seen below, with the BF symbol. (By the time she died in 1935, amidst hushed rumors of drug abuse and orgies, her group had pretty much disappeared.)

But while it existed, it claimed a number of high-ranking military people, and a number of aristocrats; their philosophy was little more than rightist conservatism, and their main activity was apparently to provide stewardship for Conservative Party meetings. Leese and others were more radical, and more anti-Semitic, so they broke off to found the IFL. They started out as Fascist, but soon became overtly National Socialist after Leese met with Julius Streicher, one of Hitler’s top Gauleiters. The IFL super-imposed the swastika over the Union Jack, which I suspect wouldn’t go down all that well with a number of folks, then and now.

LOYALTY TO LEADER COMRADES AND MOVEMENT - ALWAYS

It is said that dislike between the two groups was so intense, that BUF Black-shirts even went so far as to attack IFL meetings. Mosley once derisively stated that the IFL consisted of “three old women and a few clerks.”

Even after declaring loyalty to “King and Country,” Leese was imprisoned under 18B. After the war, he attempted to remain politically active, though under new organizational names, and the IFL per se was never rebuilt.

Perhaps ironically, modern copies of the IFL flag can be found for sale. They’re about all that remains of the Imperial Fascist League. ---ST

Dr. Leese was not a stupid fellow. He’d been an official candidate in local elections, and presented his views with intelligence, if virulently. The swastika appeared on his publication, as seen below. While many of the IFL defected to Mosley’s British Union of Fascists, he railed against Mosley for not being unilaterally anti-Jewish, and called the BUF the “British Jewnion of Fascists.”

NBU OFFICE NEEDS YOUR HELP

As members will know NBU has been under constant attack since forming in 2012. Our enemies will not stop nor must we! They have got our paypal account closed, the new donorbox account shut down and banks refusing to do business with us. This has interfered with the running of NBU especially the office rental. Of course that is why they do it!

The office is a great success, it has allowed us to increase membership and propaganda, to hold all NBU property, flags posters banners computers printers literature etc in one safe place.

If we lose the office we lose the fight

All members will have received an email with a standing order form attached, if you haven't please let us know. I would urge you to set up a monthly debit of ten pounds to help secure the rent for the office so we can carry on the struggle.

I am sorry to have to be writing to you again so soon. Donorbox closed our account, not for anything we have done, not even for anything we have said but because of who we are! All other political groups are fine, they are happy to deal with them. We on the other hand they are happy to discriminate against, we are once again being treated like second class citizens, it is a disgrace.

Of course this is all part of the plan to stop fascism progressing, which we cannot and must not let happen. To help us out at this critical time I would urge you to fill out the attached standing order pro-forma to take to your bank. This will ensure we receive your generous monthly donations. Or you can donate by credit card by clicking on the donate picture in NBU Store on our website.

This is a brand new account opened in my name (as NBU simply cannot open one) with Santander that will be used solely for the movement. The form is already filled in with these details.

The struggle continues I hope you will continue to support us going forward.

HAVE YOUR SAY

Great news about the election, Gary was spot on, for Britain did waste time money and effort only to get a handful of votes (almost beaten by the Raving Monster Loony Party) while we worked away in the background getting seven of our guys elected as independents! Well done to each and everyone of them.

Patrick Martyn

Where to begin, I have been a Fascist all my life but never active in politics. Turned off by the blatant racism of the far right parties. I have read Mussolini extensively and find him a much misunderstood character. Portrayed as a buffoon by history to suit the liberal world, he was anything but. A man who took his country from a third world illiterate shit hole to a major European power in 15 years was no fool. His ethos and regime of inclusion for everyone in the country was the template for all who see the Fascist way as the answer. I have read your aims and am impressed that they are honourable and achievable

J H Owen

During the 50s and 60s, those English folks who complained, and even marched, against the massive amount of incomers from places like the West Indies and the Indian subcontinent were denounced as racists. When they said that these outlanders and their offspring would never accept traditional English values they were scoffed at. Now about 60 years after let us look at some of the facts. In recent times in Rotherham at least 1,400 white English children were exploited by an Asian grooming gang between 1997 and 2013.

In Rochdale, nine

Pakistani men were convicted of rape in 2012. Later made into BBC drama Three Girls.

In Newcastle, a 17-strong gang claimed 108 victims and were gaoled in 2017.

In Telford, a "British-Asian" gang's victims between 2007 and 2009 were as high as 1,000.

In Aylesbury, six Asian men were gaoled in 2015 and had made their victims have sex for 'the price of a McDonald's'.

In Derby, Nine men, mostly of Pakistani origin, abused 27 girls as young as 12.

In Bristol, 13 Somali men were gaoled in 2014 for running a sex ring.

In Keighley, a gang of 12 Asian men raped a girl they saw as "utterly worthless".

In Peterborough 10 Pakistani men including a Pakistani restaurant boss were convicted of child sex crimes.

In the Middle Ages men were hanged for such offences. It really makes you wonder!

In case folks might think they only treat English girls in such a cruel way

there are other activities which have just come to light.

Forced marriages are on the increase amongst Bangladeshi and Pakistani families. These are marriages when the girl, often underage, is made to marry a man usually older than her and sometimes closely related. Arranged marriages are not the same. They happen when two sets of parents meet and decide their children are suitable to wed and the children meet up and can refuse even if this will not be liked by their parents! These marriages can work out well. The charity Karma Nirvana which helps victims of honour-based abuse and forced marriages advises young girls who fear they might be at risk to hide a metal spoon in their underwear to trigger airport scanners, giving them chance to alert security personnel before they are taken out of England. These measures are only needed because teachers, doctors, social workers and police are so fearful of being branded racist that they shy away from early intervention! Call it what you like but this is domestic violence and must be dealt with as such. If these parents claim it is merely a cultural difference then let them go back and live in a country where such cruelty is acceptable but not here.

Granville V Stone

Dear readers,

The growth of our movement has been intensified for the past few months, In the recent times, our movement has been gaining a lot of support from Britain and Europe alike. This is due to our movement being oriented to the welfare of European and British people alike, putting Britain first of course. This matter of fact serves as proof that our people have awoken up and have possibly saw that dangers that are upon us.

Unfortunately, many people still lay asleep, dreaming of a "multicultural paradise" and the (regressive) alike.

Only our propaganda work can awake them and hopefully will as our European continent itself, European civilisation and culture are in immediate danger.

We can achieve it by spreading our ideas and our words and by subverting the left and the betrayed right.

HELP US BUILD A FASCIST FUTURE

History is written, not so much by the victors, but by those who control the means of communication. And so for the last seventy years liberals, socialists and communists have spewed out their hatred of British Fascism and all it has stood for in the trade's union-funded newsletters and websites, the school textbooks, the university journals, the academic works, the popular novels, the songs, the newspapers, the magazines, the television documentaries, and even, the Hollywood movies. This has made our task difficult but not impossible; the truth will always break through the barrage of lies as long as we remain steadfast under fire. The first truth on the path to enlightenment is that liberalism leads to persecution. Remove the smiling mask from a liberal and you will see a face snarling with satanic hatred of all that makes us British. It is the liberal political elite that is our enemy and the enemy of all hard working decent law abiding people, it is the liberal socialists and communists who make up the anti-British UAF-Hope not Hate-Searchlight thugs that attack not only us but the Police Service who enforce the laws made by the political elite. I have been dismayed to see the verbal attacks from some EDL members against the Police, make no mistake the police are the thin blue line between the forces of anarchy and the order of civilised society. These 'patriots' need to look at their behaviour and how it confirms to the stereotype it portrays. To imagine that any extremism can be combated by demonstrations that mostly result in EDL v UAF v Police is at the very least misguided. Walking drunkenly down a street chanting e-e-edl is not going to effect Islamic extremism one jot. Anything from 40-60% of people no longer vote, they have simply given up on politics and politicians and feel they are not represented by any party or movement. These are the people that hold the future of Britain in their hands;

these are the people we need to reach. But acting like football fans or indeed Eton Toffs will not attract them. People want honesty, decency, strength, fairness, and real leadership with law-abiding honourable and loyal comrades to represent them, they want People not Politicians and that is what NBU and only NBU can offer them. Discipline, dedication, direction Blackshirts have it all, the real march starts here, help us build the fascist future, the only real alternative, help us reach the people with the truth and break through 70 years of lies.

A Brief Look Back ... How much of what Sir Oswald Mosley said proved to be correct ... and remains valid today? He spoke of economic crisis, the dangers of unchecked immigration, the folly of foreign wars, and more. All of which has an eerie ring of truth, to this day. ---ST

Fascist Voices contains a unique and uncompromising collection of essays that appeared in Fascist Quarterly (later titled British Union Quarterly) during the turbulent 1930s. This publication was a bold attempt by the British Union of Fascists to counter the influence of the Left Book Club, by providing an alternative intellectual platform for those writers and thinkers who subscribed to the Fascist and National Socialist creed. The series includes articles by Ezra Pound who highlights the problem of money and the Central Banking system, Anne Seelig-Thomann describes the achievements of Hitler, and the role of women in National Socialist Germany. Joseph Goebbels, outlining his vision of European Socialism, Vidkun Quisling, calling for the political unification of the Nordic race. General Franco's speech to the people of Spain, Major General J. F. C. Fuller, describes the Fascist attitude to War. Oswald Mosley provides an analysis of the political philosophy of Fascism. Alfred Rosenberg outlines the "World" philosophy of Fascism and National Socialism. Dr. Robert Ley describes the goals and achievements of the National Socialist "Strength through Joy" program, and Max Hunger describes the achievements of the German "Winter Relief Work". Whilst these and other writers in Fascist Voices shared common values in the Fascist creed, each had their own political agenda and loyalties. In Fascist Voices the reader will obtain not only an understanding of the vision and achievements of Fascism and National Socialism, but the reader will also understand why powerful economic and political vested interests sought their destruction. Some eighty years later, the world knows very little about the Fascist and National Socialist creed, except the lies and distortions provided by its opponents. The publication of Fascist Voices seeks to address that problem. https://www.oswaldmosley.com/wp-content/uploads/2018/06/Fascist_Voices-1.jpg
